

INDEX

- Abortion
- attitudes Catholic women, priests, 17
  - clandestine clinics, 22–23
  - controversy over, 14, 21, 184
  - double discourse, 21
  - financial and political risks for networks, 80, 82
  - public opinion polls, 22
  - regional policies and statistics, 21–23, 101 (Peru)
  - regional view of lack of progress on, 44–45
  - reproductive rights advocates’ positions, 21, 24–25
- Adolescents’ rights to reproductive health services controversy, 14, 16, 133–35
- and underutilization of Committee on the Rights of the Child, 32
- See also* Sexuality education case
example (Chile)
- Advocacy of women’s rights and reproductive rights
- advocacy studies, 8–9
  - Chilean and Colombian examples/implications from, 26–27
  - political costs, 27–28
  - strategies (possible), 28–32
  - network benefits, 40–41
  - political resistance to, x–xi
- See also* NGO advocacy networks in Latin America (lessons from)
- Alan Guttmacher Institute (AGI), studies on abortion, 21
- public reactions to in Chile and Colombia, 22–23
- Aylwin, Mariana, 169
- Barria, Ximena, 166
- Barzelatto, José, x
- Belém Convention. See Inter-American
Convention on the Prevention, Punishment, and Eradication of Violence Against Women

- Bilbao, Josefina, 152, 169
- Birthing women, lack of respect in healthcare systems, ix, 111
- Brazil, and expansion of pro-choice constituencies, 44–45
- Bruce, Judith, 107
- Bureaucratic resistance to change, 6
- Bush, George W., “Global Gag Rule,” 44
- Casas, Lidia, 23
- Castro, Dr. René, 163
- Catholics for Free Choice, See Roman Catholic Church
- Católicas por el Derecho a Decidir*
(CDD), 27, 88
- Centro de la Mujer Peruana Flora Tristán, 46, 77
- Centro Ideas, Peru, 110, 116
- Change, 4
cultural changes in institutions levels of, 2–3 mechanism for, 2
dynamics of in organizational culture, 191–93
resistance to, xi, 1, 11–12
backlash, 2, 6
bureaucratic, 6
lack of roadmap, 7
pressures of organized religion, 187 sustainability of, project vs. program approaches, 193–94
See also Double discourse/public policy and private actions in Latin America; Movements for change
- Child, Dr. Raquel, 163
- Chile
abortion estimates, 21
and civilian annulment policy, 18–19 and divorce law policy (double discourse example), 18–20
divorcista label for reformers, 19 illegality of all abortions, 21 and silencing of opposition, 25
legalistic culture, 23 and laws denouncing women who have abortions, 23–24
and political influence of Catholic Church, 18
public opinion about abortion vs.
public policies, 22
and role of Catholic Church during military dictatorship, 17–18 and self-censorship of Chilean feminists, 20
See also Sexuality education case
example (Chile)
- Citizenship concept, xi
and democratization and participation, 185–186
multisectoral committees, 187–188
pressures of organized religion, 187
representation issues/state and national planning committees, 188–189
school and health sector reform, 189–191
- Citizenship model of health care provision, vs. paternalistic model, 106t
- CLADEM. See Latin American and Caribbean Committee for the Defense of Women’s Rights
- CLAS. See Local Health Administration
Committees (Peru)
- Coercive sterilization programs, in India, 4. See also Peru
- Colombia
abortion estimates, 21
abortion services, 23
Alba Lucia campaign, 62, 63
doble moral, 23 fragile justice system, 24
public opinion about abortion vs.
public policies, 22
role of Catholic Church, 22–23

- Colombian Women's Network for Sexual and Reproductive Rights (CWNSRR), 25, 65, 68, 87
- Committee on the Rights of the Child, an underutilized resource, 31–32
- Community Network for Prevention of HIV/AIDS (Chile), 88
- Consortio Mujer project (Peru), 100, 126–27
- barriers to dialogue and partnership, 120–23
- context
- health/health sector, 100–102
  - reproductive rights violations/quality of care issues, 103–4
- history and framework, 104–5
- citizenship model, 105–7
  - empowerment focus, 108
  - principles, 107–8
- participating organizations, 127–28
- phase one/quality of care participatory assessments, 108–10
- Piura (case example), 110
  - problems highlighted, 108–9
  - tactics promoting users' rights, 110
- phase two/community participation/quality improvement, 111–18
- new complaints, 111–12
  - response to workshops from providers, 114–16
  - response to workshops from users, 116–17
  - training replication, 117–18
  - training workshops, 112–14
- solutions/evaluations of interventions, 118–120, 124t–125t
- successful/sustainable dialogue factors, 123
- multisectoral committees, 123, 126
- Contested sexual and reproductive health issues, 184–85
- Convention for Sexual and Reproductive Rights, 44
- Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination Against Women (CEDAW), ratification by Latin American and Caribbean countries, 43
- Cultural norms
- and resistance to change, 2, 6
  - and social and political dynamics of sexual and reproductive health, 183
- See also* Change
- CWNSSR. See Colombian Women's Network for Sexual and Reproductive Rights
- Dalkon Shield, 4
- Democratization. See Citizenship concept
- Discrimination against women in Latin America, ix
- Diversity
- acceptance of as a strategy to defend rights, 31–32
  - diversity of religions, 29
  - importance in sexuality education programs, 135, 151, 166
- See also* Networks
- “Domestic” violence, and women's rights violation, 5
- Double discourse/public policy and private actions in Latin America, 15–17
- demonstrated in dynamics of abortion advocacy in Colombia and Chile, 26
  - and diversity arguments, 29–30
  - and divorce law in Chile, 18–20
  - doble moral* system in Colombia, 23
  - double discourse features, 15–16
    - as a nonjudgmental label, 16
  - flouting of/Chilean abortion statistics, 22
- Roman Catholic opposition to sexual and reproductive rights, 14–15

- societal accommodation of conflicting values, 13–14
- See also JOCAS*
- Duque Isabel, 69
- EDUK, 138, 143
- El Salvador, illegality of all abortions, 21
- Encuentro Feminista*, 42
- Environmental movement, and population control paradigm, 4
- Fernández, Father Jaime, 163
- Ford Foundation (Andean and Southern Cone Region), x, 40
- Forum. See Open Forum on Reproductive Rights and Health (Forum)
- Fourth World Conference on Women (FWCW)/Beijing (1995), 5, 42
  - Platform for Action, 31, 43
- Frasca, Tim, 155
- Fujimori government, Peru
  - and coercive initiatives, 104
  - and health sector, 102
  - and Programme of Action (ICPD), 103
  - See also* Peru, sterilization campaigns
- Gender equality
  - equality vs. dominant cultural norms, 6
  - incorporation into population field, 3–6
  - legal change, 185
  - promotion of in sex education, 166
  - training, 115, 193
  - in workplaces, 192
  - “Global Gag Rule,” 44
- Health, definition, 3
- Healthcare. See Medical system
- Hempel, Margaret, x
- HIV/AIDS epidemic
  - advocacy networks (beginning of), 42
  - in Chile, 157, 163, 170
  - in Peru, 103
  - policies affected by Bush administration, 43
- Htun, Mala, 185
- Human rights, 194–95
  - as cornerstone of advocacy, 32
  - importance of involvement in treaty monitoring bodies, 49
  - defense by Catholic Church, 17, 136
  - framework regarding adolescents, 134, 137, 184
  - right to freedom of expression, 155–57
  - and health, 42, 99
  - incorporation into population field, 3–6
  - principles and concrete program models, 3
  - progress, 11
  - and the United States, 11
  - use of discourse by anti-abortion advocates, 29
  - violations by governments, 75–76, 188
- ICPD+10 meeting (2004), 2, 7
- Inter-American Convention on the Prevention, Punishment, and Eradication of Violence Against Women (Belém Convention), ratification by Latin American and Caribbean countries, 43
- International Conference on Population and Development (ICPD)
  - and focus shift from fertility issues to reproduction and sexuality issues, x
- ICPD Programme of Action, x, 5–6
  - consensus by governments, 13–14, 31, 43
  - controversial implications, 14
  - obstacles to implementing principles, 6–8
  - successful projects, 7–8

- See also* Reproductive health and well-being issues; Reproductive rights issues; Women's empowerment issues
- International Covenant of Economic, Social, and Cultural Rights (1976), 4
- International Women's Decade, 4, 42
- ISIS Internacional* (Chile), 69, 88
- JOCAS* (Conversation Workshops on Relationships and Sexuality), 135, 172–74
- controversies and model changes
- freedom of expression
- compromises, 155–57
- impact of “double discourse” system, 150–53, 154t, 155
- intergenerational dialogue/young people's empowerment, 157–59
- student essay contest
- controversy, 161
- tensions over multisectoral aspects of program, 161–64
- watered down manual for resource people, 159–60, 160t
- evaluation of, 142–50
- measurable results, 142
- need for follow-up intervention, 146–47
- obstacles to parental involvement, 147–49
- program benefits, 143, 146
- results analysis, 144t–45t
- “moments,” 138
- political barriers to project sustainability, 168–72
- program model
- democratizing influence of, 141–42
- goals and methodology, 139–40
- theory of learning and discernment, 140–41
- See also* Sexuality education case example (Chile)
- Keck, Margaret E., 41–42
- Kleincsek, Magdalena, EDUK, 143
- La Alianza (Mexico), 44
- Lagos, Ricardo, 19
- Latin American and Caribbean Committee for the Defense of Women's Rights (CLADEM), 42, 56, 76–77, 88–89
- Latin American and Caribbean Feminist Network against Domestic and Sexual Violence, 60–61, 69, 89
- Latin American and Caribbean Women's Health Network (LACWHN), 42, 56, 79, 89
- Latin American Consortium on Emergency Contraception, 44
- Latin American Feminist Meeting (Cartegena/1996), controversies over relationships with governments, 74–75
- Local Health Administration Committees (CLAS/Peru), 102
- Lucia, Alba, campaign, 63
- Mass Women's Movement (MAM/Peru), 77, 85
- Medical system
- for Chilean women (early 1970s), ix
- citizenship model of health care provision, 105–8
- democratic/horizontal shift, 99–100
- See also* Consorcio Mujer project (Peru)
- Mesa, Lucrecia, 67
- Molina, Sergio, 152, 169
- Movements for change
- in Chile
- silencing of opponents of strict abortion laws, 25
- See also* Open Forum on Reproductive Rights and Health (Forum)

- in Colombia
  - divisions about strategy, 24
  - See also* Colombian Sexual and Reproductive Rights Network
- Movimiento Manuela Ramos, Reprosalud, 127
- Muñoz, Adriana, 25
- National Forum of Women and Population Policy (Mexico), 75, 88
- National Women's Network (Colombia), 62–63, 87
  - funding in provincial chapters of network (example), 68–69
- Network against Violence against Women (Chile), 88
- Networks
  - and advocacy efforts, 40–41
  - benefits of, 51–54
  - challenges, 61
  - diversity management, 64–70
    - incorporating grassroots/low-income organizations, 65–66
    - incorporating provincial organizations, 66–70
    - “shared core coalitions” (difficulty in generating), 64
    - growth management, 61–64
- NGO advocacy networks in Latin America (lessons from), 39–41
  - barriers to effective advocacy, 45–48
    - reliance on foreign funding/political aspects of international support, 45–48
  - “entangled” networks, 61, 70–71
    - managing diversity, 64–70
    - managing growth, 61–64
  - financial stresses and political risks, 71–72
    - managing financial and political risks, 74–82
  - NGO and network conflicts, 72–74
  - history/context, 41–43
    - reproductive and sexual rights agenda, 43–45
  - interlocking questions, 39–40
  - internal governance of (challenges), 54
    - consensus to decision rules, 58–61
    - institutionalization aspects, 54–55
    - leadership (authority and rotation of), 56–58
    - membership, 55–56
    - network benefits, 52–54
    - persuasive* power vs. authoritative power, 46
    - provincial, rural, and grassroots groups' incorporation, 67–70
      - advantages, 83–84
      - inclusion related to funding, 62
      - measures that strengthen, 53
      - relative exclusion of provincial and rural groups, 47
    - reasons advocacy networks are abandoned, 51–52
    - representation issues, 47
    - strategies, 48–51
    - strategies to facilitate, 82–87
      - ad hoc* coalitions, 85
      - advantages of provincial level work, 83–84
      - capacity building and initiatives, 84–85
      - investments in training/long-term advantages of, 84
      - workshops for internal dialogue/training, 83
  - NGOs professional/technical role, in Latin America, 45–47
  - Open Forum on Reproductive Rights and Health (Forum), 25–26, 87–88
    - example of autonomy to deal with provincial conservatism, 67–68

- Paradigm shifts
 in public policies and backlashes, 2
   obstacles to, 3, 11–12
   and political changes, 1 and requirements for cultural shifts, 2 in science, Thomas Kuhn, 1
- Pathfinder International integration of women's rights into family planning/population programs, ix, 40
 "women-in-development" programs, ix–x
- Peru
 cultural diversity and organizational pluralism, 67 health and health sector, 100–102 innovative community participation project case example. See Consorcio Mujer project sterilization campaigns, 76–77, 103–4
- Petchesky, Rosalind, 15
- Pischedda, Gabriela, 161
- Piura, case examples of challenge of change strategies, 110, 121
- Political systems and advocacy programs, xi and focus on diversity to effect change, 29–31 religious fundamentalism increase and cultural globalization, 14–17 and spotlighting consensus documents to pressure political leaders, 31–32
- Population control paradigm and environmental movement, 4 and research within population organizations, 4–5 socialist and communist opposition to, 4
- Population Council, introduction of "user's perspective," 5
- Population field (transformation of) obstacles to implementing ICPD principles, 6–8 pre-ICPD, 3–6
 studies, 8
   advocacy, 8–9
   program case, 10–11
- Post-Beijing Initiative Group (Chile), 62–63, 88
 managing finances, 73
- Programs
 case studies, 10–11
 program vs. project approaches and sustainability, 193–94
- Quintero, Beatriz, 51
- Reproductive health and well-being issues and backlash to, 2, 6
 contested issues, 184–85
 male involvement, 123 reproductive health concept, 6
- Reproductive rights issues abortion position, 21, 78
 agenda of NGO advocacy groups in Latin America, 43–45 availability of contraceptives, 78
 Roman Catholic opposition to, 14–15
See also Double discourse/public policy and private actions in Latin America
- Roman Catholic Church
 abortion position, 21
 Catholic dissidents, Catholics for Free Choice, 22, 87 grassroots clergy vs. hierarchy, 17 influence against divorce laws in Chile, 19–20 influence level in Colombia, 22–23 majority religion in Latin America, 14 opposition to sexual and reproductive rights, 14, 103

- progressive role in Chile during military dictatorship, 17–18
  - rise of conservative wing, 18
- Sexual health concept
  - contested issues, 184–85
  - as part of reproductive health concept, 6
- Sexual revolution (1960s) in Europe/United States, as example of paradigm shift, 3
- Sexual rights, 6
  - agenda of NGO advocacy groups in Latin America, 43–45
  - conservative opposition to, 14
  - and sexual orientation issues, 78
  - values clashes, 13
  - See also* Double discourse/public policy and private actions in Latin America
- Sexuality education case example (Chile), 133–135
  - achievements and failures of, 172–74
  - advances before JOCAS, 136–37
    - decentralization of sex education decision, 137
  - impact on social programs/attitudes of military dictatorship years, 136
  - issue of adolescents and access to education and services, 133–35
  - participatory education models (lessons from JOCAS), 164
    - imposing quality standards, 165–68
    - resistance to conservative attacks/potential for control and censorship, 164–65
  - political barriers to JOCAS model sustainability, 168–72
- Sexual Education Policy of Ministry of Education and feedback, 138–39
- See also* JOCAS (Conversation Workshops on Relationships and Sexuality)
- Sikkink, Kathryn, 41–42
- Silva, María de la Luz, 137, 153, 155, 158, 167, 169–70, 173
- Smith, US Rep. Chris, visit to Peru, 77
- Social change obstacle course (Latin America/post-ICPD), 3, 11–12
- Sterilization programs. See Coercive sterilization programs
- Third World Conference on Women (Nairobi), 42
- United Nations World Conferences
  - on human rights (Vienna), 5, 42
  - on population and development (ICPD), x
  - on women (FWCW), x
- United States
  - Bush policy on advocacy for abortion, 44
  - political opposition to ICPD agreements, 11
  - similar issues to Latin American networks when recruiting low-income or minority women, 65–66
- USAID funding, bureaucratic requirements to integrate women’s issues, x
- Valdés, Teresa, 58
- Vicaría de Solidaridad* (Chile), 17–18
- “Women-in-development” programs, ix–x
- Women’s empowerment issues, 1–2
  - discrimination in education/employment, 1
  - domestic violence as violation of women’s rights, 5
  - early marriage, 2
  - female genital mutilation (FGM), 2
  - gender-based violence, 1
  - women’s rights, 4

- See also* Citizenship concept;
    Consortio Mujer project (Peru)
- Women's/feminist movement in Latin America
    beginnings of, x, 42
    divisions related to collaboration with governments, 74, 77 divisions related to expansion and
        diversity, 31
    lack of activity, Chile, 20, 26 loss of communications battle, 44 policy successes, 43
- Women's health issues, and discrimination, ix, 112–14
- Women's grassroots organizations
    in Chile, 20
- exclusion from multisectoral committees, 122, 187 inclusion affects consensus on
        abortion, 24–25, 31
    See also NGO Advocacy networks
- Women's movement, international activity in UN conferences, 4, 42 Days of Action, 48
- World Conference on Human Rights (Vienna/1993), 5
- World Health Organization (WHO)
    definition of "health," 3
    principles, 3–4
- Zamudio, Lucero, study on abortion in Colombia, 21, 23

